Reading List for MRACDS Program July 2008

Sourcing Books:

ADA Bookshop

ADAbookshop.com is the ADA's online bookshop for Members.

www.ADABookshop.com

orders@mitec.com.au

Or call on 03 9888 6262

To Borrow Books

Go to National Library of Australia www.nla.gov.au for library availability, although always check with individual libraries after that.

ADAVB Library

This library service provides Branch members with access to one of the best dental libraries in Australia and they may borrow from a comprehensive selection of dental books and journals. Members are welcome to study in the Library at any time during normal hours and arrangements can be made for weekend and evening use. Contact the Branch Reception during office hours if you wish to arrange such access.

A service is provided for country members by which they may obtain books by post upon request to the Information Services Officer, Marg Frewin (margaret.frewin@adavb.org).

Marg can also provide reference lists for study purposes and arrange inter-library loans upon personal application.

Contact the ADAVB Inc. at:

PH: (03) 8825 4600

FAX: (03) 8825 4644

Melbourne University

Relevant Melbourne University libraries include:

- The Brownless Biomedical Library <http://www.lib.unimelb.edu.au/collections/medicine/>
- The Law Library (Legal Resource Centre) <http://www.law.unimelb.edu.au/lawlib/>
- The Baillieu Library <http://www.lib.unimelb.edu.au/collections/buckland/>

To search if books are available at these libraries, go to:

<http://cat.lib.unimelb.edu.au/search/>

Most people will not have borrowing rights but they can visit these libraries (which have good opening hours, eg weekends and extended opening hours during the week). If they do not have borrowing rights they can read there or photocopy. Another alternative might be to apply for Library Borrowing Membership on an annual basis:

http://www.lib.unimelb.edu.au/services/loans/pay\_members.html

or phone 8344 0444

Melbourne University Library Borrowing Memberships:

- Only cover borrowing library materials, and do not include access to electronic resources.
- Tend to limit borrowing to the less popular/low use material texts.

ADANSW

The ADA NSW Library will try to obtain copies of the listed publications where possible.

MRACDS candidates who are ADA NSW members will have full borrowing rights of hard copies from the library.
